

K-Love is the only Christian music station in my local community and it blesses me every day. Many people in my community would suffer the adverse affects of another type of LPFM station taking over the place K-Love now has. K-Love provides a positive, encouraging influence in the community that other stations don't provide.